Accenture to acquire Symantec's cybersecurity services business

NEHA ALAWADHI
New Delhi, 7 January

Accenture has said it would buy Symantec's cybersecurity services business from Broadcom, but did not disclose the deal value. The acquisition will make Accenture Security one of the leading providers of managed security services, enhancing its ability to help firms rapidly anticipate, detect and respond to cyber threats. Symantec's portfolio of cybersecurity services includes global threat monitoring and analysis through a network of security operation centres, real-time adversary and industry-specific threat intelligence and incident response services. The six security centers are located in the US, UK, India, Australia, Singapore and Japan.

Experience Hub, Thomas Cook India in deal for Abu Dhabi travel

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, 7 January

Thomas Cook India on Tuesday said it has entered into a long-term pact with Experience Hub, the trade and promotion arm of Yas Island Abu Dhabi, to drive visits to the destination. The deal will further engage the India market for the destination in 2020 and beyond through the implementation of initiatives, including product development and training engagement. Thomas Cook India said in a filing to the BSE. "Our Thomas Cook 2020 India market trend analysis reveals high potential for multiple micro-cations and enriching experiences and Yas Island is hence a significant opportunity," Thomas Cook (India) President - Holidays, MICE, Visa, Rajeev Kale said.
